Peter Guber, Dave Roberts, Jaime Jarrin, Rick Monday and John Hartung Headlined 7th Annual Dodgers All-Access Event

Net Proceeds Support the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation and the Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission

LOS ANGELES (August 6, 2021) – The Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission (LASEC), in partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation, hosted the 7th Annual Dodgers All-Access at Dodger Stadium on Thursday, August 5, 2021. The event gave 400 fans a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to go behind-the-scenes of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The evening included exciting panel discussions with current and former players and high-level Dodger executives, photo opportunities with the World Series trophies, pitching in the Dodger bullpen and an opportunity to experience the new Center Field Plaza.

Following dinner on the field, guests heard from Dodger Owner Peter Guber, Dodger Manager Dave Roberts, Dodgers Play-by-Play Broadcaster Jaime Jarrin, Los Angeles Dodgers pitcher Julio Urías, and Los Angeles Dodgers First Baseman & Outfielder, Matt Beaty. The all-star lineup discussed what winning the 2020 World Series meant to the city of Los Angeles, the players childhood inspirations, and who was best dressed at their recent visit to the White House.

In addition to Guber, Roberts, and Jarrin, participating Dodger greats also included former First Baseman Steve Garvey; former Outfielder Mickey Hatcher; former Outfielder and current Dodger Broadcaster Rick Monday; former Catcher Steve Yeager; former Outfielder Manny Mota, former Shortstop, Coach and Manager Bill Russell, former First Baseman Eric Karros, former Second Baseman, Chase Utley, and current Los Angeles Dodgers Catcher, Austin Barnes.

The program was emceed by SportsNet LA Anchor John Hartung and Rick Monday.

“Dodgers All-Access is a meaningful way for the community of Los Angeles to connect with and experience our renowned sports franchises,” said Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission President & CEO Kathryn S. Schloessman. “This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience for Dodger fans, and we hope they all had an opportunity to create cherished memories with their friends and family.”

About the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation:

ESPN's Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation is bigger than baseball with ambitions to be the city's premier charity. We envision a city where everyone regardless of zip code has the opportunity to thrive. We are tackling the most pressing problems facing Los Angeles with a mission to improve education, health care, homelessness and social justice for all Angelenos. Since 1995, we have invested more than $32 million in programs and grants to nonprofits, and fundraising has increased by 1,000% since 2012. That growth has enabled us to do more.
