LOS ANGELES (August 9, 2024) – The Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission (LASEC), in partnership with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF), hosted the 10th Annual Dodgers All-Access at Dodger Stadium on Thursday, August 8, 2024. The event gave more than 400 fans the rare opportunity to go behind-the-scenes of the storied Dodgers franchise.

The evening included panel discussions with current members of the team, photo opportunities with the World Series trophies, pitching in the bullpen and hitting in the batting cage.

Following dinner on the field, guests heard from manager Dave Roberts who provided insights on the final regular season stretch. The players— right-handed pitcher Yoshinobu Yamamoto and infielder Miguel Rojas—took the stage and shared stories from the clubhouse.

In addition to Yamamoto, Rojas, and Roberts, participating Dodgers players and alumni included current pitchers Michael Grove and River Ryan; former infielder and SportsNet LA broadcaster Jerry Hairston Jr.; former outfielder Mickey Hatcher; former pitcher and current broadcaster Orel Hershiser; former outfielder Shawn Green; former pitcher Charlie Hough; former first baseman Eric Karros; former outfielder Rick Monday; former outfielder Manny Mota; former shortstop and manager Bill Russell.

The program was emceed by SportsNet LA anchor John Hartung and Hershiser.

“Dodgers All-Access continues to be a wonderful way for Los Angeles sports fans to connect with the Dodgers franchise and reinforce our mission of delivering lasting impact for the community,” said Kathryn Schloessman, President & CEO, Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission. “We’re grateful to host our 10th Annual Dodgers All-Access and provide such a unique opportunity to explore one of the most storied franchises in sports alongside the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.”

“Dodgers All Access was yet again an amazing evening in support of two impactful organizations working to improve Los Angeles,” said Nichol Whiteman, CEO, Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation. “Through the timeless magic of Dodger Stadium, our supporters experienced a field of dreams. We are incredibly grateful for their support.”

About the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation:

The Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF) tackles the most pressing problems facing Los Angeles with a mission to improve education, health care, homelessness, and social justice for all Angelenos. Reimagined in 2013, LADF has since raised over $154 million, including a $50 million pledge in 2024 by its Chairman Mark Walter and Dodgers Ownership, marking the largest contribution ever from an MLB ownership group to the organization's charitable partner. Under its new strategic plan, "Lasting Impact for Los Angeles," LADF is amplifying best practices, scaling solutions, growing its capacity and refining its work with investments exceeding $60 million in its programs and grants to local organizations. To date, LADF has positively impacted over 10 million youth. LADF is the proud recipient of ESPN's Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, Robert Wood Johnson Sports Award, Beyond Sport's Sport for Reduced Racial Inequalities Collective Impact Award, and the Aspen Institute Project Play Champion.
