LOS ANGELES, March 10, 2025 – Tournament officials announced today that the 2025 JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro, Los Angeles' premier LPGA Tour event and the 2024 LPGA Tournament of the Year voted by LPGA players and officials, is scheduled to take place April 17-20, 2025 at El Caballero Country Club in Los Angeles with several enhancements and initiatives in giving back to the Los Angeles community.

Tickets for tournament rounds, Thursday-Sunday, April 17-20, are available for purchase now exclusively at www.JMEagleLAChampionship.com/tickets.

JM Eagle to Provide Complimentary Admission to Those Affected by the Eaton and Palisades Fires: On behalf of JM Eagle, those affected by the Eaton and Palisades Fires will receive complimentary grounds tickets during tournament competition rounds Thursday-Sunday, April 17-20 (up to four tickets per family). Tickets can be reserved in advance at www.JMEagleLAChampionship.com/tickets or onsite at the admissions gate at El Caballero Country Club during tournament week. Proper identification and proof of zip code will be required at the admission gate.

First Responders, Military and Their Families to Receive Complimentary Admission Courtesy of SERVPRO: All First Responders (fire, police and emergency medical technicians) as well as all members of the military (active, reserved, retired and veterans) and their families (up to 4 tickets) will receive complimentary admission to the JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro - compliments of SERVPRO. Complimentary tickets for competition rounds (April 17-20) can be reserved online at www.jmeaglelachampionship.com/tickets or on-site at the admissions gate. Proper identification will be required.

In January, JM Eagle donated $1.5 million to support wildfire relief efforts in Los Angeles, including the Los Angeles Fire Department Foundation, the California Fire Foundation, the Los Angeles Police Foundation and the Los Angeles Firemen's Relief Association. These funds are specifically directed towards equipping Los Angeles fire fighters and first responders with the necessary gear and equipment to ensure their safety and preparation, and towards rebuilding the homes of first responders that were lost in the wildfires. Furthermore, JM Eagle has pledged to donate another $5 million towards rebuilding communities affected by the fires.

“The LPGA Tour has a rich history in Los Angeles, and we are committed to giving back to our city in a variety of ways through the JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro. We want to put on a splendid event showcasing world-class players and inspiring a love for this great game of golf in more communities across generations,” said Walter and Shirley Wang, CEOs of JM Eagle and Plastpro. “We look forward to working with the tournament team at Outlyr, the LPGA Tour and the staff at El Caballero Country Club in providing a respite and a beacon of hope for our tremendous fans in Los Angeles as we continue to rebuild our great city.”

Entire Field of 144 Players to Receive Complimentary Lodging Accommodations: For a second consecutive year, the entire tournament field of 144 players competing in the JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro will receive complimentary lodging accommodations throughout tournament week, courtesy of title sponsors and presenting sponsors JM Eagle and Plastpro. Each player will be offered first-class hotel accommodations along with complimentary VIP shuttle service to El Caballero Country Club throughout tournament week.

“To be successful on the LPGA Tour not only requires passion, but also a lot of costs week-in and week-out to compete at the highest level. It is our pleasure to once again provide complimentary hotel accommodations for all of the players competing in our championship, and it is also our dedication to make the JM Eagle LA Championship the premier event on the LPGA Tour,” continued Walter Wang. “Our hope is that everyone finds joy in golf and the valuable life lessons it offers in diligence, resilience and sportsmanship.”

Children under 18 to receive complimentary admission: Through the support of Walter and Shirley Wang, the tournament will continue to offer complimentary grounds passes to children under the age of 18 with a paid adult. Children under 18 and junior golfers will be invited to Junior Golf Day, taking place Saturday, April 19 on-site at El Caballero Country Club. As part of Junior Golf Day will be the Junior Golf Show, featuring a demonstration, clinic and a Q&A from an LPGA Tour professional on her experiences as a professional athlete on the LPGA Tour. Additional Junior Golf Day initiatives to be announced in the coming weeks leading up to the championship.

The JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro will feature a field of 144 of the world's best female professional golfers vying for a share of the $3.75 million purse, one of the largest prize funds on the LPGA Tour schedule outside of major championships.

Celebrating its third year in 2025, the tournament moves to El Caballero Country Club in suburban Los Angeles while Wilshire Country Club undergoes a multi-million-dollar course renovation and comprehensive upgrade project that began last fall. The host of the 75th U.S. Girls' Junior Championship last summer, El Caballero is also a three-time LPGA Tour host (2002-2004), won by Hall-of-Famers Seri Pak and Annika Sorenstam.

Major Champion Hannah Green successfully defended her title in 2024 at Wilshire Country Club and is the two-time defending champion at the JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro. She is scheduled to defend her title in April.

“The JM Eagle LA Championship presented by Plastpro is one of our favorite events on the LPGA Tour, and we are so thankful to Walter and Shirley Wang for their passion and dedication in elevating this great championship into a can't miss event for both players and fans,” said Green. “I look forward to teeing it up in Los Angeles in April and going after a three-peat.”

About El Caballero Country Club

El Caballero Country Club is a private member-owned club in Tarzana offering members and their guests a world class golf and country club experience – with exceptional and personalized service, superb dining and social opportunities, and extensive recreational options. Founded in 1957 on the principle of non-discrimination, a novel concept for that era, El Cab instead evaluates prospective members on their reputation, community service, and philanthropy, building a congenial and welcoming community.

El Cab's 18-hole championship golf course was originally designed by William Johnson. Robert Trent Jones Sr. redesigned the course in 1963, and, in 2021, his son Rees Jones completed a restoration to improve playability and sustainability. The resulting drastic 33% water usage reduction earned El Cab the Metropolitan Water District's Leadership in Conservation award and aligns with El Cab's compassionate core values and demonstrates the commitment to being a good environmental steward of a limited natural resource.
